

It was a great honor to hear from Ukraine's new democratically elected leader at today's joint session of Congress. I applaud Viktor Yushchenko's courage in standing up for democracy, reform and open government. He has overcome tremendous obstacles to realize his vision of a democratic Ukraine. I will work with my colleagues to support President Yushchenko's efforts to strengthen our democratic alliance.